

CRESTSprogram is hiring a Graduate Research Assistant for the 2024-2025 academic year!

Are you a doctoral student in a mental health or education discipline (e.g., counseling, social work, psychology, education) seeking additional professional experience in culture-centered, trauma-informed care? Interested in emancipatory research methods?

CRESTSprogram may be right for you!

CRESTSprogram Graduate Assistants perform a variety of roles including:

- Conducting searches, developing annotated bibliographies, mini-literature reviews
- Presenting at conferences, publishing in academic journals
Assisting in the development of CRESTSprogram promotional materials (e.g., podcasts, practitioner briefs, etc.)
- Coordinating webinars and managing chats/Q&As during presentations
- Composing and disseminating the CRESTSprogram newsletter

Interested in applying?

SEND THE FOLLOWING
MATERIALS TO:

INFO@CRESTSPROGRAM.COM

- Curriculum vita
- Proof of membership in a national professional organization related to your discipline (e.g., American Counseling Association, National Association of Black Social Workers, National Association of Black School Educators, Association for Black Psychologists, etc.)

Cover letter describing your experiences with research, interest in culture-centered counseling/education/research,

- and a willingness and aptitude to use various technologies, including social media

1 Letter of recommendation from a current or previous faculty member

APPLICATIONS ACCEPTED ON A ROLLING BASIS

For any questions about the CRESTSprogram, LLC Graduate Research Assistant role or application, email

Info@CRESTSPROGRAM.COM.

